Worst Memory Along with Dick Ingram, changing a synchro in the SR radar antenna pedestal while underway with rough seas. The pedestal was aft about 50 ft above the main deck. It's a good thing Dick Ingram was there or the synchro would never have been replaced.

Favorite Memory Taking a dependent's cruise to Hilo, Hawaii. The Royal Australian Navy Band (RAN) went on the cruise with us. They played on the main deck while the mess cooks were grilling steaks. We were winding our way slowly from Pearl Harbor to the big island. The sea was calm and the sun was peaking through the clouds. The music, ladies voices, the scenery and the aroma of steaks on the grill made the cruise unforgettable.
Worst Memory A shakedown cruise where we lost fire in the boilers and the ship went dead in the water in the middle of the night. The only light we had ship was from battle lanterns. The engine room was blistering hot without any power for ventilation fans. The batteries to start the emergency diesel generator were dead. We had to pull batteries from the Captain's and Officer's gigs to start the generator. The boilers were eventually restarted and normal power was restored. That was good because the ship was listing 13 degrees to port.

Favorite Memory Receiving world that our first child, Cindy, was born; 21 Sept 1952. The ship was in Japan at the time. I first saw her after my discharge in April 1953. Installation of the sonar Attack Teacher at Hunter's Point in San Francisco.
Worst Memory We were in Pearl Harbor over the 4th of July in 1952, on our way to Japan, when I fell asleep on Waikiki Beach and got a really bad sunburn on my face. The super heavy work load running the Attack Teacher for destroyer sonar crews while in Japan.

Special Comments I served a few months in late 1950, fresh out of Sonar School, on the USS PRAIRIE, AD-15; then about one year on the USS H E HUBBARD, DD-784, in waters off Korea, before transferring to the USS BRYCE CANYON (AD-36). Visiting my Mondoy cousins on Molokai when I had vacation and on weekends when not on duty, especially the flights to and from Molokai on a small six sweater plane. Working with the R-5 division FTG's, and others. Standing watch on the fantail during the trip from Taiwan in '73 when there were 30 ft swells and I could see the ships propeller when it came out of the water. Mess duty for 3 months on 3rd shift which gave me a lot of time to visit the many beaches on Oahu during the day. Helping to tie up the USS ENTERPRISE Aircraft Carrier, that was BIG and cool.
Worst Memory Arriving in the Philippines in Jan '73 to catch the USS BRYCE CANYON and to find out it had already left for Taiwan and waiting about 2 weeks in Subic Bay and then Clark Airbase to catch a flight out, and I was sick most of that time. Trying to sleep at sea.

Special Comments When I left the Bryce Canyon in 1968 I went to NAS Atsugi, Japan. I didn't finish my normal three year tour at Atsugi because the Navy thought they were going to close the Aircraft Repair facility there (they didn't). In June of 1971 I received orders to the USS HANCOCK CVA-29 and in July of 1973 I retired (transferred to Fleet Reserve) with 23 Yrs of service.
After retirement I obtained employment with Kaiser Hospital in Oakland, CA where I worked as a plant engineer. I stayed with Kaiser for five years until a job came up at McKasson Research Center in Dublin, CA. (This reduced my commute from 35 MI to 1 MI). Over the years because of corporate name changes, being sold, etc, I ended up working for Clayton Environmental Consultants. I retired from Clayton in Apr 1994. We sold our home in Pleasanter, Ca and moved to Grass Valley where we had owned a second home since 1979. We purchased a motor home and have spent a fair amount of time running around the country.

Favorite Memory Cmomfairmed (naval station, Italy) a shipmate in my unit there had me and my family hit the road during the summer and we toured a lot of Italy, camping out instead of costly hotels. On the next two summers we not only toured more of Italy, but also Austria, Germany, Switzerland and a little of France. My next most memorable duty was in the PI. That is where I met my wife and we have been together ever since. We got married in 1970.
Worst Memory Independence-unreps, vertreps day and night sometimes lasting until 3 in the morning. Also since it was a deep draft had to moor way out while in port in the Med causing a long ride back to the ship at night after liberty.

Special Comments I recall when we arrived in Charleston, there weren't any supplies on board, and at first we took our meals at the Shipyard. I remember asking my Chief one day (G C Caroll) if I could go ashore for cigarettes. He said that we were to busy loading the ship, and I would have to go some other time. He said he needed to go to the bathroom, but there wasn't time. After working with him in the Office of the Supply Division for more than a year, I learned what a tough job he had. It seemed to me after a period, he was the only one that knew what was going on. That included the Supply Officer and the Stores Officer. Somehow, we got her loaded and left Charleston, never to return. I have no idea what happened to the BRYCE CANYON. Maybe junked?

He could drive, cut yards and do things that didn't need much brain work. Orva passed away on January 26, 1993. We had him for 37 yrs longer than we thought we would have him.
