Heritage Farmstead Museum

This four-acre museum preserves a way of life during the height of farm prosperity in the early 1900's. The beautiful Victorian home and 12 outbuildings was the hub of a 360-acre farm operated by a colorful local resident, Aimee Wilson. The museum is open to the public and guided tours are available.

Interurban Railway Museum

Plano transportation history is brought back to life with this interesting exhibit. Once a vital part of the Texas Electrical Railway that stretched from Denison to Waco, the Interurban is one of the original electric cars that ran on the tracks through Plano. Also on site is Car 360 which carried mail as well as passengers.

Southfork Ranch

Known as the "World's most famous ranch", Southfork Ranch has attracted millions of visitors ever since it became the homestead of the fictional Ewing clan. Although most visitors are aware that J.R., Bobby, nor Miss Ellie never lived at the ranch, they are drawn into its sprawling acres in hopes of experiencing a bit of television history and a lot of Texas hospitality.

Shop at "Ranch Round Up" in the Visitors Center, featuring a wide selection of Southfork gift items and Texas collectibles.

Re-live some of the memorable moments from "Dallas" in the "Dallas Legends: Fact to Fantasy" Exhibit. See the gun that shot J.R., Lucy's wedding dress, video clips from the series, interviews with the stars, and other memorabilia that will make you feel right at home with the most infamous Texans of them all, the Ewings.

Tram Tour departs the Visitors Center, taking guests through International Drive, proudly flying flags representing some of the 96 countries where "Dallas" has been broadcast. You will also be able to view Texas longhorns and American quarter horses.

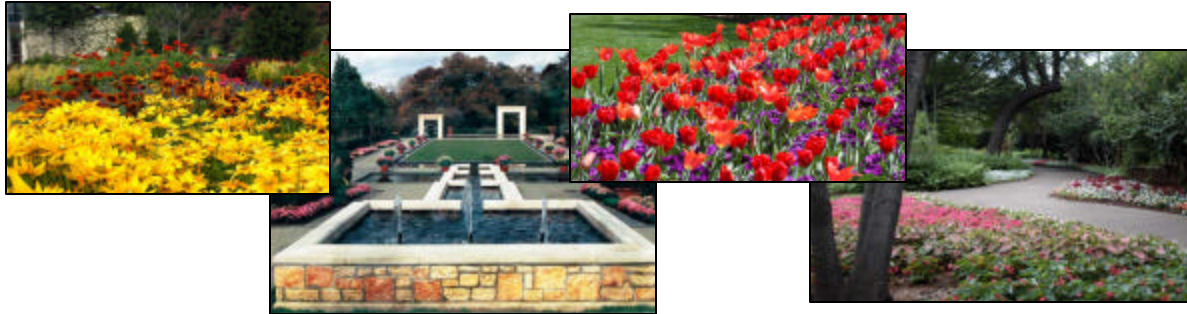

At the famed Ewing Mansion, a tour guide will give interesting tidbits about the years of filming and insight into the character of the Ewings. Guests are given a full-guided tour of the "most famous White House west of D.C.". Yes, even J.R.'s bedroom!

As guests depart the Mansion, they can stroll through the ranch grounds, and stop and visit "Lincolns and Longhorns", displaying Jock Ewing's original 1978 Lincoln Continental. Guests can shop here for Dallas-inspired men's and ladies apparel, decor, and accessories.

Located just 5-10 minutes from the Plano Centre, Southfork is open daily, year 'round for guided tours, private parties, special events, shopping and more! For more information, call 972-442-7800, or visit the web site at <http://www.southfork.com>.
