

Tucson

We outrank the rest ***
value, amenities, service, access & recreation!

Tucson—the perfect place to rendezvous with old friends. Fantastic weather, beautiful surroundings, excellent facilities, and exciting attractions await you in this restful desert city.

A salute to your budget

Tucson is ranked among the top five most-affordable meeting cities. Choose from venues of every size and lodging for every budget. We have resorts and hotels at all price levels with great deals on group activities.

Top-flight fun for all

Everyone loves Tucson's mild year-round climate, spectacular scenery, and scrumptious dining. The city blends postcard beauty with a casual pace, colorful culture, and world-renowned activities and attractions.

Leave home without hassle

Tucson is served by 12 airlines, with more than 80 daily flights from popular destinations nationwide. The city is easily navigable by car and Interstate-10 runs through the downtown area.

Your Tucson reunion allies

Military Locator & Reunion Service, Inc. in partnership with the Metropolitan Tucson Convention & Visitors Bureau will plan and manage the details to make your reunion run smoothly—beginning to end.

METROPOLITAN TUCSON CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU

RoxAnne Erickson 800-638-8350 ext. 120 rerickson@visitTucson.org
100 S. Church Ave. Tucson, AZ 85701 www.visitTucson.org

Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum

An extensive nature park, with hundreds of species of live animals and plants

Kitt Peak National Observatory

World's largest collection of optical telescopes located high above the Sonoran Desert

Pima Air & Space Museum

Over 250 aircraft representing America's aviation history and operator of Aircraft Maintenance and Regeneration (AMARC), where hundreds of airplanes rest

Mission San Xavier del Bac

Referred to as the "White Dove of the Desert" for its striking, intricate architecture

Saguaro National Park West

Where giant saguaro cactus, unique to the Sonoran Desert of Southern Arizona and Northwestern Mexico grow

Tombstone, Arizona

Site of the West's most notorious and storied shootout at the O.K. Corral